

Policy statement :

Structure :

1.Presentation -On the top of the page you must present:

- a)your country
- b)your Forum
- c)the actual topic you will find an example on the attached documents of this email

Adress the house

2.Introduce your country -What country -do you recognize the problem ?why ?
-what is your position towards ?

3.How much has your country been involved in this Topic ? -List most crucial past/historical events from your country concerning this topic-put numbers names past resolutions in it and - methodology(how your country intended to improve the situation

4.What are your future intentions ? -have you got current/future projects regarding this topic -are you willing to help solving this problem

5.Show your motivation -express your feelings towards the upcoming work/resolution

6.Thank everybody for listening

Guidelines:

- The Position paper should have more or less 250-300 or more words
- You will afterwards during the conference have to make a speech about your country's position concerning the topic ,we suggest you to just read out loud your policy statement/position paper
- This speech should be about a minute so carefully choose your words
- Consider the position paper as a public statement, as your represented country profile where you clearly state your position to the other delegates so that after reading it loudly instead of losing time you can search for delegates whose opinion is similar to yours

• May the delegate not refer to himself as I alternatives are as an instance:

- a. The delegation of France
- b. The delegate of France
- c. The French Rrepublic
- d. We